

Working with

Building Coordinator Paul Lamb

July 2016

Today is Sunday, July 3, 2016. Tomorrow we celebrate Independence Day. My prayer for this nation is 2Chronicles 7:14. Even so, soon come Lord Jesus!

June was a busy month. Greta and I started off by celebrating 32 years of marriage. She is my anchor and my best part. I can't imagine my life without her.

I was able to work a few days in Kentucky at the start of the month, then my nephew and I traveled to Toronto for a Saturday afternoon baseball game, (Blue Jays won), and Sunday I had the awesome privilege to preach at The Vine Church in Mississauga, Ontario. Pastor Terry Stevens is a longtime friend and the people there were great hosts.

The following Saturday found me in Chouteau, Oklahoma. Pastor Delmar Hume invited me back to Parkview Mission to see their beautiful new sanctuary building. Sunday morning we had a great message from Brother Caleb Wood, Pastor of Valley Landmark Baptist in Spokane Valley, Washington. It was great to see him and his family again. Then Pastor Delmar asked me to preach the evening service. It was an honor to stand before my friends and present a small portion of God's Word.

The following week was spent at the National meeting of the ABA in Tulsa, Oklahoma. We were able to get caught up with some old friends and make some new friends. We were also able to set some dates for some upcoming projects in 2017. More information will follow soon.

When the National Meeting was over, we went to Texarkana, Arkansas to erect a new metal building at the Baptist Children's Home. A special thanks goes out to Brother Brett Stephens of Star City Arkansas for heading up this job. And a big thanks goes out to Brother Jay Weidener and his ministry, Cornerstone Builders. Jay came all the way from Sacramento, California to attend the meeting and help with the building. Ben Brittain, Brant Lane, and myself rounded out the crew.
